

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Defendant

Order

<sup>1</sup> 2:17-cr-142-JAD-VCF at ECF No. 164, and in 2:17-cr-160-JAD-VCF at ECF No. 363 (styled as “Emergency Motion for Leave from the District Court to Prepare the Writ of Mandamus”). Although he has filed a copy of this document with this court, he has not requested any relief from this court.

1 deny any further requests to continue this hearing to allow him to 2 prepare mitigating sentencing materials. The court advises Wright 3 that if, for any reason, he fails to or is unable to file a sentencing memorandum before the continued sentencing hearing, he will simply have to make his arguments verbally to the court.

4 Wright's latest Ninth Circuit filing changes nothing. The Court issues this order to make it
5 clear to all parties that the Court intends to sentence Wright in both cases as scheduled 6 unless this court receives an order from the Ninth Circuit halting these proceedings. And 7 because Wright did not file a sentencing memorandum by the Court's extended deadline, and he 8 has offered no objections to the presentence investigation report (PSR), he will need to present 9 any mitigating information verbally during the sentencing hearing in 2:17-cr-142-JAD-VCF on 10 March 5, 2019, and any objections to the PSR in that case are deemed waived.
